

Please do not weaken NJ's "Do Not Call" registry. Although I understand it to be more stringent than the federal one, telemarketers are still able to get through. I get at least 5 calls a day where the caller ID shows "unavailable" instead of the company name; if I answer, it turns out to be telemarketers.